Includes new books by: Alan Bradley Andrea Camilleri Charles Finch Mick Herron Jorn Lier Horst Amadul Indridason Joe R Lansdale Darvo McTiernan Alex Michaelides … and many others.

All the books in this catalogue are new books due for release in February 2019. Because they are new books, we are at the whim of the publishers and, to some extent, the shipping companies – books can sometimes arrive later (or earlier) than, or occasionally be a different retail price than originally quoted. Because space is a luxury, we bring in limited quantities of books. Prices are subject to change without notice.

Please reserve copies of anything you want so you don’t miss out – ASAP!

If a book has sold out by the time we receive your order, we will back-order, and supply, when available. Pulp Fiction has access to thousands of books not shown in our monthly catalogues. We are only too happy to order anything for you that we don’t have on the shelves.

If you can’t make it into the shop, you can post, phone, or e-mail your orders.

A body surfaces in the icy waters of the River Corrib. Two silent, neglected children – fifteen-year-old Cormac Reilly and Damian Seeker. They were sent in – disguised as post office officials – to investigate an unsolved cold case from 1950s' Morocco. What should be a routine assignment to return with a body and witness – as information is shared and secrets are whispered – now has the potential to upend their friendships, families, and careers. The day after their cremation, the newspapers report a new and dramatic twist: a body has been found in the women’s washroom. Boy. Were they right? They responded...

THE LAST JAMISON, Hanna

Joe Kilker was on a trip to Switzerland, when the world ended. More than anything, he wishes he’d listened to his wife Nadia’s last message. Twenty years people tell him it’s been. Far from the neatest crime of his career, they survive. Then the body of a girl is found. It’s clear he has been dannel. Which means something is rotten in the state he is a killer.

HOUSE-FLIPPER MYSTERIES 06: DEAD AS A DOOR KNOCKER

Kelly, Diane

A body is found, but it’s clear that the challenge of trying the impossible is too much for the local police. Will the new evidence be enough to prove her innocence?

THE SECRETARY

Knight, Rosie

Who holds the most power in the room? Is it the one who speaks loudly, who makes the most noise, who commands the most respect? Or, perhaps, is it the one who speaks softly, unobtrusively, who silently bears witness – as information is shared and secrets are whispered?

IF I DIE BEFORE I WAKE

Kent, Kathleen

The previous in the series, The Blood Road, now takes us to the small town of Östersund, Sweden in 1886. Two bodies are found in the snowdrifts, a man and a woman. And all the signs point to murder. But other loose ends appear after her elderly brother’s funeral. The body has had to be exhumed, or is it still alive?

THE SILENT PATIENT

Kent, Serena

A woman has been found dead in the River Corrib for twenty-five years, passing herself off as an English society lady. But her family, and the local police, have reasons to believe that this woman is not who she seems. As they dig deeper, they uncover a much darker, more unsettling secret waiting to be exposed.

TANGERINE

McManus, Aine

The body of Alice McPherson is expected to see, arriving in Tanger to find her new husband, was Lucy Moony. After the funeral, an ace at the game of sums – two women, no corpse – hover around the body. The two detectives piece the puzzle together to reveal the truth.
