All the books in this catalogue are new books due for release in May 2012

Because they are new books, we are at the whim of the publishers and to some extent the shipping companies - books can sometimes arrive later (or earlier) than anticipated or occasionally be a different retail price than originally quoted. Because space is a luxury, we bring in limited quantities of books. Prices are subject to change without notice.

Please reserve copies of anything you want so you don’t miss out - ASAP!

If a book has sold-out by the time we receive our order, we will order more and supply when available.
Pulp Fiction has access to thousands of books not shown in our monthly catalogues. We are only too happy to order anything if we don’t have it on the shelves.

If you can’t make it into the shop, you can post, phone, fax or email your order.
We accept Bankcard, Mastercard, Visa, AMEX, cheques and Australia Post Money Orders.
Approximate current postage within Australia is: 1 - 2 paperbacks (up to 500 grams), $6.60; 2-10 paperbacks or any trade paperbacks or hardcovers within Brisbane is $8.65. Outside Brisbane metro area (over 500 grams up to 3 kilos), $11.40. Anything above 3 kilos charged at Australia Post rates.

Until next time, good reading.
Ron, Ian and Beau

THE DROWNED CITIES
BACALGUI, Paolo
Two damaged children, Mona and Malak, are the focus of Bacal gui’s brutal novel that further explores the world depicted in The Mayor (TP $17.99). With the half-man, Teel, making a reappearance, the action shifts to the flooded ruins of the Drowned Cities (a fantastic approximation of Washington, D.C.), where rival warlords battle for control of the ravaged metropolis. Bacalgui takes on child soldiers, global warming, the surreal-smashing impact of violence, and even the current political disorder in this disturbing and propulsive apocalyptic novel. Recommended.

COMMENTARY

"Forget everything you know about fairytales with this boutique Cinderella. A testament to the power of Rimbaud's poem 'La Belle Dame sans Merci', this taut mystery by Jane Yolen is a masterclass in storytelling — and a warning never to sit on cursed boxes in the attic."

— Eric Brown, The Guardian

THE TERROR

Peter Straub

"True. "Absolutely delectable; if it has more fripperies and fancifulness than I imagined, it's still a masterpiece, and its value for posterity will make it worth reading just for that in the wildly gory way of its own storytelling." — Kirkus Review

Fantasy HC $28.95

THE WIND THROUGH THE KEYHOLE

Neil Gaiman

"A great new story that's as dark as it is funny, as scary as it is terrifying, and as beautiful as it is twisted."

Fantasy PBK $21.99

THE HEIR Apparent

Joseph Hill

"This is not the deus ex machina ending one often finds in urban fantasy, where the hero is pursued by an army, and is only narrowly saved."
