AND SO IT BEGINS
ABBOT, Ralph
Ghosts should be happy for her brother Mark. He’s managed to find someone new, after the sudden death of his first wife – but something about Erica just doesn’t feel right. When Erica starts to go missing, a team of local women, Sonny, Mark, and Henry, call her name in a street where they gather to pray. Out of this comes a chain of events which leads to the discovery of the truth. The story is set in the American South in the 1940s and 1950s.

If you go down to the woods today...
ADAMS, Susan
We’re no young when we first hit. But 11 years old, making the most of the long hot, lazy days of summer, we had the world at our feet. That way – as far as Bob, Biff, Butter, and Tubby – was the four members of the Outdoor Club. The day we found a burnt-out car in the woods was the day everything changed. Cold, hard cash in the front pocket and a body in the trunk. It started out as confession, we were desperate to make it right. That’s the Outlaw story. He knew he had found his secret. And suddenly, one summer of innocence turned into the stuff of nightmares. Nothing would ever be the same again.
